FEBRUARY 2019

The manner in which most of us became Christian [was] by looking over someone else's shoulder, emulating some admired older Christian, saying yes to and taking up a way of life that [was] made real and accessible through the witness of someone else."

~ Stanley Hauerwas and William Willimon in Resident Aliens

The quote above speaks a lot of truth to me, but in my life there is one small flaw. It is not that I have taken up this life after seeing it lived by one someone - it is after looking over the shoulder of many, many someones. I can remember serving meals at Roanoke Area Ministries alongside Gene, who came in to organize and serve every week - well into his eighties because the life of faith would have been dry and dead for him without this outworking of love. I recall conversations around campfires about life, death, doubt, and hope with church-folk from all over the district. I have sweet memories of tables added upon tables that extend out of dining rooms and into living rooms to welcome everyone in - and the prayers of thanksgiving, the laughter, sometimes the tears that accompanied those diverse gatherings. This life - where it felt like those around me were fully alive - and I was fully invited to participate - it continues to call to me.

People risked investing in me. And they risked being real with me. Those who shaped my faith did not have everything together or all the right answers. Most of them weren't even in full time ministry. They wrestled with hard questions alongside me. They offered up their experiences not as answers but as possibilities. I wonder now if they knew I was looking over their shoulders or not.

In a little over a month, we are going to begin a Baptism and Membership class during the Sunday School Hour. The class will look at Church History, Brethren History, the Bible, and Brethren Beliefs and Practices. It will be intergenerational - any young people who are interested will be learning right alongside any of you who are more seasoned but looking to inquire more fully into these issues. Participating in the class is also not a commitment to baptism or membership. While we will offer baptism at the end, it is not an obligation. This is a chance to ask questions and learn. Furthermore, it's not limited to those who aren't members - maybe you want a re-fresher - you are welcome.

But this means we will have a group of people exploring - and so I want you to consider if perhaps yours is a shoulder that some of them might look over. Not because you've got it all figured out, but because you are engaged in the process. Because your real life is one you have chosen and continue to develop. Because you have something genuine and meaningful to offer someone else. It would be amazing if everyone in this new class had someone they could sit in worship with sometime, someone to invite them to Love Feast, someone to tell them true stories about faith, doubt, and hope. Please let me know if I can pair you and your shoulder up with someone.

Maybe that's not where you are right now, but as we move into this time where a new ministry is beginning with the college and we start to discern our gifts together with the gifts discernment survey, what do you want to offer to the ongoing work of God and this church?

Sunday School Spotlight

with Jeannie Lashlee

Recently I talked with the Stone Church Sunday School Teachers via modern technology (aka e-mail) to learn more about what's offered on Sunday mornings. Over the next few months in this Sunday School Spotlight, I'll give you a taste of what's happening in some of our classes. Read on, and discover where you can get plugged!

Currently, we have five classes:

Pre-school and Early Elementary class taught by Jeannie Lashlee,
Llamacats led by Pam Grugan,
Senior High Class with Rick Laabs,
Sojourners led by different teachers but coordinated by Henry Thurston-Griswold, and an Adult Bible Study taught by Pastor Ben.

(And in early spring Pastor Cindy will be offering a Membership Class)

This month we continue the conversation and I answer my own questions...!

Question: What Sunday School class do you teach? Who is the class for?

Jeannie: I teach Pre-School and Early Elementary; children in the 3rd grade or younger.

Q: What is something you would like others to know about your Sunday School class?

Jeannie: Parents/Caregivers are welcome to join in at class. The more the merrier!

Q: Do you have upcoming plans for your Sunday School class?

Jeannie: Future plans for the Early Childhood class include talking about what happened after the Christmas story. So, we will talk about Jesus as a boy, Jesus meeting the disciples and Jesus performing miracles.

Hard copies of the survey are available in the back of the sanctuary for those who would prefer to complete it on paper and submit it to the church office.

We really have used your information from last year's survey, and thank you all for taking the few minutes to fill it out. If you wish help, we will have computers and youth available to help you after Church on Sunday, March 3rd.

MESSENGER MUSINGS

By Eugene R.
Goshorn

“Love and Marriage “

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud..... Love never fails,” says First Corinthians.

For more than 25 years, my wife was a responsible and respectable community librarian in Huntingdon and Altoona. Much like Marion the librarian in the Music Man. Her father was the Rev. Albert Haught, a pastor with the Church of the Brethren. In fact, Alberta was named after her father and was a true “PK.” By the time she was 60, Alberta had not wed but was a lover of cats, of which she had had many.

Then Alberta made a serious boo-boo. After her parents passed away, Alberta took in a stray cat who came looking for food. Always picking New Testament names for her cats, she named her stray “Joseph.” Soon “Joseph” had to be renamed “Mary Joseph” when “Joseph” brought home a litter of seven. Alberta did note “Joseph” was putting on weight.

Then Alberta boo-boo’d again. This time, Alberta married a man she had known since she was 16, when he sold her dad his first new car. He walked into her life one day while she was working as a volunteer at Huntingdon County Historical Society. Naturally, she was thrilled.

Who did Alberta marry, you ask. Here she got really lucky. Of course, you guessed it. She married me, Yours Truly. She realized how lucky she was when I took her to the Olive Garden in Altoona for our first date. I paid. As you may know, not every girl gets taken to a prime out-of-town restaurant on their first outing together

Upon reading these words, Alberta declared”

“I’ve had plenty of time to rue my mistake.”

But, being the author, I get in the last word:

“I’m going to stand outside, so if anyone asks. I am outstanding.”

Besides, February is my birth month.

We Remember.....

Howard Robert Parlett

September 29, 1935 – December 31, 2018

Howard Robert Parlett, 83, was born to Roy Howard and Reba Elizabeth (Miller) at the family home in Stewartstown, E. Hopewell Township, York County; and was raised there with his two brothers, Walter “John” and William “Bill”. On July 23, 1961, he and Barbara Arlene Whitsel were married at Stone Church of the Brethren by the Rev. Stewart B. Kauffman. They were married for 57 years and, during that time, raised their four daughters – Linda, Sandy (Norris), Roberta “Betsy”, and Elizabeth “Liz” (Beatty). There are also two grandchildren, Zachary and Amanda, as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Howard was very involved in Huntingdon, where he both lived and worked. He worked for the Pennsylvania State Police Department for 32 years and was a member of the Huntingdon Lions Club for 37 years! The joy and laughter he brought to those around him were celebrated at a service on January 5, 2019, officiated by Pastor Cindy Lattimer. Our thoughts and our prayers remain with Barb and their family.

Worship Center Flower Sign-Up — Commemorate a loved one, special event or season with a floral arrangement or focal piece! Please sign-up on the easel board located in the back of the sanctuary. Most florists in town have a key to the church and will deliver flowers right to the Worship Center for you (some suggestions: Mowers Flowers, Weaver the Florist, Colonial Florist). Or make your own arrangement, bring in a beloved sculpture, piece of pottery, or anything that inspires you!

If you have any questions, contact the Worship Center Committee member listed by the Sunday(s) of your choice.

Stone Church seeks to be a Christ-centered community where all are spiritually nourished, equipped and empowered to continue the work of Jesus, peacefully, simply, together.

Grocery Gift Cards

Eight years members of our congregation (Tan Hille, Martha Swigart, Cheryl Ritchey and Barb Purdy) got inspired and set up the Grocery Gift Card Ministry. It grew steadily for five years, and while it remains a meaningful and significant ministry – a staple to our bottom line – the last 4 years have seen a decline in participation. Below they share the numbers with you, so you know what can be, and has been accomplished. These numbers represent the 5% we earn for every dollar you spend at the register!

Year	Weis	Giant
2010	$ 1275	$ 1158
2011	$ 1625	$ 1425
2012	$ 1850	$ 1500
2013	$ 2350	$ 1500
2014	$ 2685	$ 1450
2015	$ 2000	$ 950
2016	$ 2500	$ 850
2017	$ 2005	$ 800
2018	$1750	$ 900

Totals: Weis $18,040.00 & Giant $8,534.00. Total earned since 2010 is $26,574!!

We greatly appreciate our loyal gift card buyers, and those who purchase cards on occasion! In today's economy, this is a great way to support the church while doing the unavoidable – buying groceries! Every time you shop with a grocery card you help keep the Grocery Gift Card Ministry alive and enable Stone Church to do small and large building projects and host fun events!

Can we take a page from the Llamacats and their efforts to Fill the Ark?!

Purchase cards weekly or monthly so you have them with you when you shop! They're available each Sunday at the back of the sanctuary, or from the church office Monday-Thursday. Thank You!
