

STONE CHURCH NEWS

MARCH 2019

From the Pastor's Desk

In the Lattimer house when I was growing up, we were quiet every Saturday night from 6 - 8pm. We were listening to A Prairie Home Companion on the radio. It was Garrison Keillor's variety show, filled with music and jokes and stories. The highlight was The News from Lake Woebegone - stories of the comings and goings of the folk from Garrison's imagined home town. We just loved stories. Mom says that I put myself to sleep most nights, even when I was young, staying up late reading books. There's just something about stories...

Did you ever wonder why the all-powerful God of the universe would choose to reveal himself through ancient texts - through stories instead of theological descriptions? Maybe it's fitting that God's self-revelation comes through narrative. Stories speak to deeper realities, to complexities that challenge simplistic descriptions. If you're describing a machine, then some sort of technical manual serves best. Sometimes we try to offer a simplified technical manual version of God. But the God of the Bible is something different - something terrible and wonderful and unpredictable. The incredible witness of the Bible is that God is a person. Transcendent yet living. God is a person, the creator in real relationship with the created.

Stories are powerful. They speak to deep places within us, reaching past the part of our brains that deal with interesting facts. As Frederick Buechner says, stories reach down to the place inside of us where dreams are born. (See Telling the Truth, p. 4) Stories speak to the parts of us that define us. Our deepest connections with others are with those who get us - those who know our story, and whose story is in turn known by us. Stories, the deep narratives, remind us who we are and give us visions of who we want to be.

So, beginning in March, we are going to be reading stories together. Jesus knew the power of stories, and in worship each week, we'll explore together Jesus' parables. You can help us build up the worship center at the front too. Bring in your favorite books - the stories that have helped shaped you over the years. (Write your name in the books, so they can find their way back home at the end of the series.) After church, feel free to come up front and look through the books that have been most meaningful to the people around you.

We'll also be starting a Stone Church book club! We'll have short stories available for different age groups. Take one home, read it through, and leave your thoughts and reflections on the attached page. Bring it back the next week, and pick up a new story - reading it and the reflections of others who have read it before.

In Sunday School the youngest among us will be continuing to read stories of God's care for us. In our adult classes you can choose between reading Jesus Stories from the Gospel of Luke, or stories of God at work around us amidst the Powers and Principalities in the Sojourners class. There will also be a class for those thinking about baptism and membership - learning about the story of the Brethren Church, and looking at how your own story ties in both here and now, as well as to the broader tale God has been weaving since the beginning of time.

There are so many ways to get involved. We hope you'll join us this month - hearing stories and sharing your own!

Baptism & Membership Class

If you're not a member or have never been baptized, this Sunday School class is for you. (Taking the class is an exploration, not a commitment to be baptized or to become a member.) Maybe you've been a long time member and want a refresher. Come join us! Call in to the office (643-3390) or send an e-mail (PastorCindyLattimer@gmail.com) to sign up - it will be very helpful to know who is planning to attend. Here's what Pastor Cindy's Membership Class will look like:

- March 10 - Get-to-know each other
- March 17 - History of the Brethren and Stone Church
- March 24 - History of Christianity
- March 31 - History of the Bible
- April 7 - Brethren beliefs and practices
- April 14 - Palm Sunday, no class
- April 21 - Easter, no class
- April 28 - Stone Church structure

Sunday School Spotlight

with Jeannie Lashlee

This month we will hear what my third Sunday School teacher interviewee had to say. As you remember, we currently have five classes:

Pre-school and Early Elementary class taught by Jeannie Lashlee,
Llamacats led by Pam Grugan,
Senior High Class with Rick Laabs,
Sojourners led by different teachers but coordinated by Henry Thurston-Griswold, and an Adult Bible Study taught by Pastor Ben.
(And Pastor Cindy's Membership Class begins on March 10th!)

Question: What Sunday School class do you teach? Who is the class for?

Rick: I teach the Senior High class. The Holy Spirit tugged at my heart and I got involved when the Middle School class lost their teacher mid- year. I have not regretted it since.

Q: What is something you would like others to know about your Sunday School class?

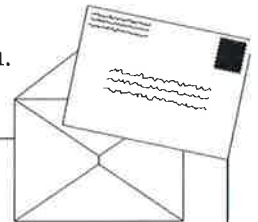

Rick: Our class is an interactive exploration of how we should live out our faith, as we use Jesus' example. In class, they enjoy playing a game relevant to the topic.

Q: Do you have upcoming plans for your Sunday School class?

Rick: Visiting Elderly Shut-Ins. ... And they did! See their story on the next page!

Q: Do you have anything else to add?

Rick: If you are considering teaching or assisting, come try it out. The classes are small, so you truly get to know the students and can make a big impression on them.

"With us in spirit..."

Below are members of our church family who, though they are not often physically able to join us in worship, remain with us in spirit. Remember them in your prayers, and with cards and visits! Please contact the church office (814-643-3390 or stonechurch@verizon.net) to add others you know.

Class Follow-up on Planned Action

By Rick Laabs

Our Stone Church Sr High Sunday School youth had the opportunity to live out one of the messages from this past summer's National Youth Conference. The message was "widen the circle" by reaching out in love and inviting others to the table. During class, we explored who among the members of the community are outsiders, either by choice, by circumstance or because of societal norms. The list was extensive and included prisoners, those hospitalized, the homeless, etc. We brainstormed ways we could reach out in love to each group, widening our circle in the process. My challenge to the class was to select one group with whom to live out the message of sharing love. They chose visiting elderly shut-ins. (The group that is "with us in spirit.")

January 6th, seven of our Sr High Youth and two teachers ventured to Arista Care to deliver a message of love, with Christmas cookies, to Orpha Hearn and Howard Crouch. It was serendipitous that it was also Orpha's 93rd birthday! The group presented her with a birthday cake and sang a rousing rendition of Happy Birthday. As the group introduced themselves, Orpha shared memories of them as children or babies, as well as their parents and grandparents. It was a time rich with community. After the short birthday celebration, half stayed to visit further with Orpha while the other half ventured down the hall to visit with Howard, age 94.

The groups experienced two completely different perspectives of Stone Church, particularly in regards to senior living in a nursing home. Orpha was upbeat, thankful for her friends at Stone and their love and support, as she shared her memories since the first time she attended Stone at age 3 days. And Howard, always the teacher, offered perspectives on current events and volunteered a listening ear if they ever needed to talk. Several youth commented on how sharp their minds were. The group shared the experience during worship, thus connecting the congregation to the event, in essence bringing Orpha and Howard's spirit, message and memories to the table. In widening their circle, the youth brought joy and love to Howard and Orpha that will no doubt linger beyond that one day. And in the weeks that followed, the youth reflected on their experience and continue to consider their next steps. When you see the youth, be sure to ask them about their Arista Care trip!

Stone Church seeks to be a Christ-centered community where all are spiritually nourished, equipped and empowered to continue the work of Jesus, peacefully, simply, together.

Mark the beginning of the season of Lent... ASH WEDNESDAY

6:30pm Wednesday Evening

MARCH 6

This is a joint service of Stone Church together with Juniata College's Campus Ministry Office. This service is one of preparation and reflection. Ash Wednesday derives its name from the ancient practice of marking the foreheads of worshippers with ashes from the unused palm branches of the previous year. This ritual is offered during this service to those who wish to participate.

6:00 PM SUNDAY EVENINGS

MARCH 24

APRIL 14

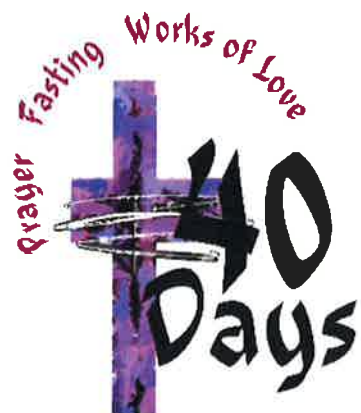

All are invited to attend this casual 45 minute service of music, prayers, and silence. A small group of instrumentalists accompany songs which are prayerfully repetitive. A Taizé service is an excellent opportunity to find some stillness and quiet in our busy world. Come, join us, and experience rest and peace for your spirit.

Lenten Music for Meditation

Lent is the season in the church year where we reflect as we journey alongside Jesus to the cross and beyond. Lent begins on Wednesday, March 6 (Ash Wednesday) and ends on Thursday, April 18 when we celebrate Love Feast together. Then comes Good Friday where we remember Christ's death on the cross, and on Easter Sunday churches around the world celebrate Christ's resurrection. But right now, here in this month of March, we have an opportunity to take pause during the Lenten season, those days leading to the crucifixion. We have a chance to reflect on how this impacts the world, and our lives. Throughout Lent, you are invited to join the Huntingdon church community each Wednesday afternoon to listen to meditative music. Each 45-minute service of Lenten Music for Meditation is led by an area musician. The doors open at noon to allow a time of silence in preparation with the services beginning at 12:15.

All are invited.

- March 6: Marian Sue McElwee - Presbyterian Church
- March 13: Keith Sutton - Presbyterian Church
- March 20: Anthony Bullett - Presbyterian Church
- March 27: Marian Sue McElwee - Presbyterian Church
- April 3: Mim Slicker - Abbey Church
- April 10: Loren & Donna Rhodes - Stone Church
- April 17: Keith Sutton - Presbyterian Church

Baskets will be available at the door should you wish to leave a donation toward the Huntingdon Area Forum of Churches Emergency Fuel Fund, helping those in the community weather the Winter's cold.

“Proclaim Christ; Reclaim Passion”

Annual Conference 2019

July 3–7

Greensboro, NC

Sheraton/Koury Convention Center

Registration & housing open March 4

Let us proclaim the One in whom we live and move and have our being, the One who stands at the center of our life together, Jesus the Christ. As we together proclaim Christ, may we reclaim passion for Him our Divine Teacher, Savior and Redeemer, and Lord and King. May we reclaim passion for our life together as gathered believers called Church of the Brethren and return to our first love as His bride, the church.

The proclamation of Christ brings a message of 'New Creation!' through a daily dying to self and living for Him who died for us. When God's Spirit is at work in us, seeds are produced for ongoing transformation yielding fresh blossoms of passion for the Kingdom throughout our lives. May we each embrace Christ's transformation personally and open our spirits for how we are called to be transformed as His Church in today's world.

2 Corinthian 5:17-18: So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation...

I Hope Your Piggy Bank is Bulging a Bit!

Or are you like my son, David, and my brother, Chris? Their coins can be found scattered in their trucks, on top of their bureaus, on the kitchen window sill and even in the washer and dryer!

Are you wondering why I care about your loose change?! Well.... it's because the Coordinating Team of Middle PA District has sent a request asking for spare change to support the budget of our local outreach ministries. The formal title for this collection is Pennies for Witness.

Last year, our congregation collected over $200 in just 5 months (May to October). My hope is that by starting two months earlier, we can surpass that figure and raise $350 this year.

So, start collecting your change at home and bring it to the church when you can. Look for the white plastic tub in the back of the sanctuary on Sunday's and on the filing cabinet in the church office on weekdays.

In the coming months, I will share more about where those pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters go so they end up helping others.

So, keep your eyes peeled for stray coins around the house, and don't forget to check in the cushions of your favorite chair! Take my word for it, you won't be sorry you made the effort.

Work for a cause – not applause; live to express – not impress. Don't pose to be seen – make your absence noticed. We use these and other “common sense” values help guide our lives.

The influence of the Hebrew Bible and the Christian New Testament, also give rise to values that show us how to live. These “common sense” values provide moral balance in a seemingly unbalanced world, according to an article by Dr. Richard Lee, founding pastor of the First Redeemer Church in Atlanta, Georgia.

One of the focal points for us as Christians is this verse from Deuteronomy 6: “Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one.” It's called the “Shema” (which means “to hear” in English). The rest of the passage goes like this, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk down the road; when you lie down, and when you get up... write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.”

We read in Proverbs 1:7 that “the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge.”

It has been written, “think of these words as you age. As you get older, you really just want to be surrounded by good people – good for you, good to you, and good for your soul.”

The great American statesman, Daniel Webster, was once asked what the most sobering thought was that entered his mind. He quickly responded by stating, “My personal accountability to God.”

Ministerial Candidates

Stone Church's vision statement reminds us that we seek to be a place "where all are spiritually nourished, equipped and empowered to continue the work of Jesus, peacefully, simply, together." As part of that vision, Stone Church has played a part in God's calling of numerous people to set apart ministry.

We currently have 4 members exploring a call to ministry. Mary Garvey, Rick Laabs, Andrew Wenger, and Sara White.

We are excited to walk alongside them on this journey. The process begins with them selecting a calling cohort, a group of people (including pastors and members of the congregation) to serve as a sounding board and as mentors over the course of the year as they explore God's call on their lives. They've also been taking courses - as seminary students and through the Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center, learning about themselves and training in the work of pastoral ministry.

After a year together with this calling cohort group, they may be called by the district and church as Licensed Ministers. Please continue to be in prayer for Mary, Rick, Andrew, and Sara as they follow where God is leading them, continuing the work of Jesus in their lives, peacefully, simply, and together.
